

GENERAL QUALIFICATIONS
OF ORANGEMEN AND ORANGEWOMEN.

Members of the Orange Institution should have a sincere love and veneration for the Triune God—the Father, Son and Holy Spirit; an humble and steadfast faith in Jesus Christ, the Saviour of mankind, believing Him to be God and Man, and the only Mediator between God and man. They should cultivate truth and justice, kindness, charity, devotion, piety, concord, unity, and obedience to the laws; their deportment should be gentle, compassionate, kind and courteous; they should cultivate the society of the virtuous and avoid the company of the evil; they should honour and diligently read the Holy Scriptures, and make them the rule of their faith and practice; they should love, uphold and defend the Protestant Religion, and sincerely desire and endeavour to propagate its doctrines and precepts; they should strenuously oppose the fatal errors and doctrines of the Church of Rome, and scrupulously avoid contending by their presence or otherwise any act or ceremony of Roman Catholic Worship; they should by all lawful means resist the ascendancy of that church, its encroachments, and the extension of its power, ever abstaining from all uncharitable words, actions or sentiments towards its adherents; they should remember to keep Holy the Sabbath Day, attend the public worship of God, and diligently train up their offspring, and all under their control, in the fear of God and in the Protestant faith; they should never take the name of God in vain, but abstain from all profane language, and use every opportunity of discouraging these and all other sinful practices in others; their conduct should be guided by wisdom and prudence, and marked by honesty, temperance and sobriety. The glory of God, the welfare of man, the honour of their Sovereign, and the good of their country, should be the motives of their actions.

Choral Programme 2-2.30 p.m. by Rockdale Songsters.

1.—The National Anthem (Sung as Opening Hymn)

God save our gracious Queen,
Long live our noble Queen,
God save the Queen;
Send her victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the Queen.

O Lord our God, arise,
Scatter her enemies,
And make them fall;
Confound their politics;
Frustrate their knavish tricks;
On Thee our hopes we fix,
God save us all.

14.—Hymn: "In Time of Tribulation" (Tune, Aurelia)

In time of tribulation,
God raised a warrior bold,
'Twas William, Prince of Orange,
Whose memory dear we hold,
He fought the foe with courage,
The Popish hosts o'erthrew,
He is the joy and pattern
Of all good men and true.

'Midst battle, strife and bloodshed,
But one grand aim had he —
The Protestant religion
And English liberty.
So may the Orange brethren,
When danger threatens near,
Around our glorious banner
Defend the faith so dear.

He stood before all nations,
Truth's champion to be,
'Twas he who saved our country
From Priest and Popery.
The blessings that he left us,
Our Church and liberty,
From Rome and Ritualism
Forever we'll keep free.

Ye Protestants of Austral,
Disown Rome's baneful sway,
Join with the Orange brethren
To keep our foes at bay.
There's work to do and plenty
To clear our Church from stain,
Revive the Reformation
Within her walls again.

15.—"All in the April Evening" Chatswood Methodist
Augmented Choir

16.—"O God Our Help in Ages Past"

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home. ... Amen.

17.—Benediction.
